

7th Annual Georgetown
FREE
NATURE FEST

featuring Music, Art & Native Culture

Saturday, April 24, 2010
9:00 AM - 4:00 PM

Naturally Native: Women at the Drum Gathering 10 AM -12 Noon
Mary Youngblood Music & Healing Workshop
small fee - 2 PM - 3:30 PM

Georgetown Nature Area,
6530 Wentworth Springs Road
Georgetown, California

All Day Native Music, Dance, Storytelling, Poetry, Drums, Flutes, Cultural Presentations, Arts, Crafts, Vendors,
Children's Activities, Info Booths, Massage, and Food

Evening Concert to follow Nature Fest

7:00 pm at the IOOF Hall,
6420 Main Street, Georgetown, California
Tickets $15.00 in Advance. $20 at the Door

And
GOOD SHIELD AGUILAR - Indigenous Soul Music
IOOF Doors Open 6:00 PM, Music Begins 7:00 PM

Events Hosted by: Friends of the Nature Area (FONA), El Dorado County Indian Council (EDCIC) and KFOK Community Radio. In Partnership with Georgetown Divide Recreation District (GDRD). All proceeds of concert to benefit KFOK. All Proceeds of Silent Auction and/or Raffle to Benefit EDCIC

Thanks to Sponsors:

Sierra Native Alliance and others to be announced.

For more information visit www.georgetownnaturearea.org or contact Mignon Geli 530-334-3697. Email: mignon@kfof.org